Section 177(9) of the Companies Act, 2013 and Rule 7 of Companies (Meetings of Board and its Powers) Rules, 2014 requires every listed company and such class or classes of companies, as may be prescribed to establish a vigil mechanism for the directors and employees to report genuine concerns or grievances in such manner as may be prescribed. In compliance with the Companies Act, 2013, Asirvad Micro Finance Limited (AMFL) being a Company having borrowed money from Banks in excess of 50 Crores rupees, established a Vigil (Whistle Blower) Mechanism.

Regulation 4 of the SEBI (Listing Obligation and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (Listing Regulations), mandates all listed entities to devise an effective Whistle Blower Mechanism enabling stakeholders, including individual employees and their representative bodies to freely communicate their concerns about illegal or unethical practices. As per Regulation 22 of the said Listing Regulations, the listed entity shall formulate a vigil mechanism for directors and employees to report genuine concerns. Also, such vigil mechanism shall provide for adequate safeguards against victimization of director(s) or employee(s) or any other person who avail the mechanism and also provide for direct access to the chairperson of the audit committee in appropriate or exceptional cases.

Asirvad Micro Finance Limited has formulated the policy that should govern the actions of the Company, Directors and its employees. Any actual or potential violation of the policy, howsoever insignificant or perceived as such, would be a matter of serious concern for the Company.

Objective

The Vigil (Whistle Blower) Mechanism aims to provide a channel to the Directors and employees to report genuine concerns about unethical behaviour, actual or suspected fraud or violation of the Codes of Conduct or Policy.

The Company aims to propagate a culture for maintaining the highest standard of conduct and professionalism. To achieve this, the Company has formulated this policy that will provide guidelines and assignment of responsibility for the development and maintenance of controls, the conduct of investigations, awareness training for the employees. The Company would perceive any actual or potential fraud, however insignificant or perceived as such, very seriously.
